HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT

I have read the food vendor rules and agree to abide by these rules. I understand that failure to comply with said rules may result in expulsion from the event. I agree that I will not hold the City of Starke, the Bradford County School District, its agents, Splash Bash staff, sponsors and volunteers liable for any claims, liabilities, costs or charges arising out of any accident, injury, loss or damage to the person or property of the vendor while participating in the Starke Splash Bash events.

GENERAL FOOD VENDOR RULES

1. Vendor space is measured out in 20-foot increments. Make sure your space requirements include trailer doors open to the tip of the tongue and if you choose to leave your vehicle attached, you will be charged an additional 20-foot space, even if you are over by one foot.
2. Tables, tents, and chairs are NOT provided. If you choose to utilize canopy tents, they must be properly anchored in a safe way without being a tripping hazard. A minimum of 20-pound weights anchored to each leg is recommended.
3. Vendor space is $100 per 20-foot section. Checks are made payable to the City of Starke.
4. Must comply with fire safety requirements. Fire extinguishers must be kept on site and according to code for the kind of food being prepared. Type K must be used for anyone who provides fried food. Tents must be flame resistant. Propane tanks must be secured.
5. Floors in tents with food prepared in grease must be covered by mats, tar paper etc. to keep the grease off the field. No grease or oil to be poured on ground, in storm drains etc. Take it with you. Trash/Food Waste Disposal. All trash needs to be properly disposed of in trash bins located throughout the festival. If your nearest one is full, let event staff know.
6. Must comply with health department guidelines that are published by the DBPR as the Hotel and Restaurant Guide to Temporary Food Service Events. This includes the purchase of a temporary food vendor license. Florida DBPR requires payment by money order presented that Tuesday morning, July 4th. Full information is available at www.myfloridalicense.com/dbpr/HR/forms/documents/5030_034.pdf.
7. You may not trade, sell, share, or sublet your space.
8. A responsible person 18 years or older must be always present.
9. You are limited to selling only items approved on your application. You will be checked periodically for compliance. Any additions to your menu must be approved by the food vendor coordinator prior to the event. The food vendor coordinator will limit duplications of menu items. No alcoholic beverages can be sold, given away or consumed during the event.
10. No animals are allowed in/around the food booths.
11. No Overnight parking, camping or motor homes will be allowed.
12. Electricity is not available in the immediate area, so please bring a quiet generator.
13. Event Management assumes no responsibility for personal property damage or loss, or liability for injury to any attendee, guest, participant or participant's officers, employees, agents by acts including but not limited to, losses from natural disaster, fire, theft, ordinary negligence, and accidental damage and injury or others except that which may result from the Event Management's willful misconduct or gross negligence. Event Management does not guarantee product sales, attendance, or booth success.
